

GOLD RESERVE DOWN
TO $58,000,000*THIS VERY LOW MARK WAS REACHED TODAY.*The Belief is, That Some Measures
Will Be Taken For Meeting the Deficiency and Providing Bonds
—Proceedings Of the Senate and House.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—The gold reserve today is down to fifty-eight millions of dollars, an exceptionally low figure. "An extra session is almost a certainty if we do not do something to relieve the treasury at least temporarily before the adjournment of the fifty-third congress. Under the circumstances, therefore, I am inclined to believe in the closing days of the session some such plan as that suggested by Senator Allison will be agreed upon by both houses. Neither the republicans nor the democrats want an extra session and the Allison plan is practically the only one of the scores thus far submitted which is distinctly a temporary expedient and yet at the same time is a plan which does not disturb existing conditions nor precipitate any fight on silver, gold, greenbacks, national banks, state banks, or any other of the disputed issues."

This statement was made yesterday by a member of the senate finance committee and later in the evening was repeated substantially word for word by one of the leading members of the ways and means committee of the house. What is known as the Allison plan has not yet gone even to the extent of being put into bill form and is so far based on statements made to newspaper correspondents by the Iowa senator. Continuing the subject Senator Allison said:

"The plan, as I originally outlined it, was in two sections, embracing the issue of treasury notes and of bonds. It is the treasury note feature alone which I consider necessary to relieve the treasury from its present embarrassment. I propose, in brief, that the treasury shall issue $50,000,000 of notes, running one, two, and three years, or possibly two and three years, in about equal proportions. The interest could be fixed at 2 per cent, or 2½ per cent, or whatever rate would be sufficient to float the notes without difficulty. They would not disturb existing conditions, and would not reopen any currency question. I think a limit of $50,000,000 would be ample to cover the deficiency for the coming year. These currency notes differ from the certificates of indebtedness for which there was such a rush in 1879, for those were exchangeable for bonds."

"These interest bearing treasury notes which I propose to permit the secretary of the treasury to issue are simply to forestall future revenue. If the revenue of the government is not sufficient within a year or two to provide for the payment of these notes it would be a simple matter to adjust the tariffs or internal revenue laws so as to provide the necessary money. The question of issuing bonds to maintain the parity between gold and silver is a distinct thing. The secretary of the treasury under the existing law can issue those bonds at 5 per cent, or a net interest rate of about 3 per cent, and the bond feature which concerns the question of keeping up the parity between the precious metals only is entirely distinct from the proposed treasury notes, as they concern only the deficiency caused by lack of revenue to supply the ordinary expenditures of the government. I have not put my plan into the form of a bill, as it is a suggestion merely."

COMPLETE SUNDRY CIVIL BILLSeveral Controverted Passages Alone Remained.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—The house yesterday devoted all its time to the consideration of the sundry civil appropriation with such success that at the hour of adjournment it had completed the reading of the bill, except for several controverted paragraphs, which were temporarily passed over. The case of Judge Ricks had an echo in the adoption of an amendment offered by Mr. Ray (rep., N. Y.), making it unlawful for clerks of United States courts to include in their emoluments fees not earned and due at the time their acts were rendered and forbidding the allowance of fees not actually earned. Mr. Ray said privately this was to meet such cases as the Ricks one. Some minor amendments to the bill were made. By amendment Arizona and Wyoming were included in the list of states where increased rates should be allowed for surveys and resurveys of heavily timbered lands. The amount to be expended for examination of public surveys was increased from $35,000 to $40,000.

ONE TERM IN OFFICE.Committee Recommends that Presidents
Be Ineligible for Re-Election.

WASHINGTON, D. C. Jan. 24.—The committee on the election of President and Vice-President and members of congress reported favorably to-day, through Chairman Donovan of Ohio, on Mr. Bryan's joint resolution making the President ineligible to succeed himself. The committee thinks that the welfare of the country does not depend upon the continuance in office of any particular person, however worthy.

and believes that the dangers attendant upon a re-election of a President to succeed himself are greater than the advantages to be expected from it, and therefore recommends that the resolution be passed.

Morgan's Poll on Nicaragua Bill

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—Senator Morgan, who has charge of the bill, believes there will be no opposition to taking a vote on the Nicaragua canal scheme to-day, the debate having closed yesterday, so far as the set speeches are concerned. Senator Morgan believes he has a majority of twelve votes for the bill as it stands. There is, unfortunately, but little chance of the canal bill getting through the house at this session, owing to the short time remaining as well as the openly expressed hostility to the subsidy provisions. At the opening of the session yesterday the consideration of the Nicaragua canal bill was resumed, and Mr. White (dem., Cal.) spoke in advocacy of the project. At the conclusion of Mr. White's speech Mr. Mills (dem., Texas) gave notice he would address the senate to-day on the Hawaiian question.

Republican Senators Will Caucus.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—The republican senators hold a caucus in Senator Sherman's committee room at 10:30 o'clock to-day. The question of most importance to be considered is that relating to the finance, and it is understood the republican members of the finance committee will ask they be instructed as to what course they pursue in dealing with the questions in committee. There will also be some republican policy in connection with the bills for the admission of New Mexico and Arizona. The announcement of a caucus had the effect of reviving the talk of the prospect of a compromise between the bond advocates and the silver republicans.

Committee Postpones Action.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—The house committee on territories has decided to indefinitely postpone the further consideration of the Wheeler bill to admit as a state the territory of Oklahoma with a portion of the Chickasaw country attached.

THE BROOKLYN STRIKE.Less Violence Done, and Troops May Be Sent Home.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—There were yesterday, as Wednesday, eighteen lines running out of the forty-eight on strike, but they were able to operate more cars. Tuesday 179 cars were run. Wednesday 252, and yesterday the companies claim they had nearly 300 cars moving. Justice Gaynor will hear argument to-day as to whether his mandamus shall be alternative or peremptory. The judge holds that if the directors of the company can not get labor at what they offer they must pay more and get it. They may not stop their cars for an hour even, and thereby beat the price of labor down to the conditions they offer. It would be a defiance of law and government for them to do so and would tend to social disorder. The chief occupation of the mobs yesterday was wire cutting. Many of the linemen went out, but not the entire force. The electrical workers are banded together in a benevolent union simply and are not a factor of the Knights of Labor, hence their going out is purely sympathy.

Serious demonstrations by the rioters seem to have been in a large measure given up. The crowds that gather are easily dispersed, and it is evident the strikers and their sympathizers are taking care that they do not call forth the shots from the soldiers or the club charges from the police. Carney, who was shot by the troops Tuesday, died at the Long Island college hospital yesterday morning. They now confine themselves to the cutting of the trolley wires and the feeder wires.

Justice Gaynor of the Supreme court handed down his decision on the application of Joseph Loader for a mandamus to compel the Brooklyn Heights railroad to operate its cars in sufficient numbers to accommodate the traveling public in the Fulton street, Putnam avenue, Greene and Gates, and the Tompkins avenue lines. He grants the mandamus. Loader is a merchant, who alleges his business suffers by reason of the failure of the company to operate its lines.

The report is current that the First brigade, composed of the New York city regiments, is to be relieved from duty either to-day or to-morrow. Ten experienced trolley men, who had been brought here from Pittsburgh Tuesday by the Brooklyn Heights Railroad company, deserted the Flat-bush avenue cars of which they were in charge yesterday afternoon and were brought to the strikers' headquarters at Mugge's hall at 10 o'clock in the evening. Altogether twenty-one men arrived from Pittsburgh and five stole away from the stables last night undetected and ten of the remainder, as soon as they got a chance, did likewise. The company is getting new men, but slowly, and not in sufficient numbers.

Says He Knows Where Taylor Is.

CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ind., Jan. 25.—John G. Overton, justice of the peace and ex-county superintendent of Montgomery county, claims he has W. Taylor, the defaulting treasurer of South Dakota, located near Crawfordsville. He says he is ready to deliver him up and get the reward.

PIERRE, S. D., Jan. 25.—Attorney-General Crawford left for Chicago last night.

THEY ALL WANT WAR DOWN IN MEXICO*EXCITEMENT RUNS HIGH IN THE CAPITAL.*Dispatch From the City Of Mexico
Says That Residents Favor a Declaration—The United States Will Use Its Good Offices to Reconcile
The Countries.

CITY OF MEXICO, Jan. 22.—Great excitement is manifest here today and everybody wants war to be declared although no declaration has been made. Giving the Mexican consul at Guatemala his passports yesterday has terminated friendly relations between Guatemala and Mexico. A Mexican paper, Le Independiente, printed on the Mexican side of the line, yesterday afternoon printed the statement. It is also said the secretary of state of Mexico at the City of Mexico had notified all consuls of the government of this fact by telegraph. The Mexican consul here declared the truth of the statement and called upon the editors of the paper, who have since asked for warrants for his arrest on the charge of assault. They reiterate the truth of the statement published and hold that the consul is endeavoring to misrepresent the facts.

CITY OF MEXICO, Jan. 25, via Galveston, Texas.—Guatemala's answer was received last evening, and the minister of foreign affairs of Mexico is now saying it will be presented formally to the cabinet and President to-day. A skeleton of the document of Guatemala's answer is to the effect that the territory disputed over belongs to it, and that if any indemnity is to be paid Mexico owes it to Guatemala. The prospects are that war will be declared to-morrow or next day.

Uncle Sam Will Try to Prevent War.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—The United States will use its good offices to prevent war between Mexico and Guatemala. For some time past, especially since it became apparent Mexico had begun active military preparations, the administration officials have been seriously considering the propriety of endeavoring to mediate the difficulty between the two countries. As a result it has been practically decided to instruct our minister to Mexico to use his good offices to avoid a conflict between the two republics, but the intimation is given plainly at the state department that the United States will not interfere actively to prevent a war between Mexico and its weaker neighbor.

TO FIND THE REMAINS.Chicago's Sailors Will Be Sought for in the Ice Lake.

SOUTH HAVEN, Mich., Jan. 25.—The ice field off this shore is strewn with fragments of the Chicora. Since 7 o'clock yesterday morning piece after piece of the upper works of the vessel, bits of the cabins, bulwarks and upper decks have been picked up and identified. The great field of ice is being explored, but the work is prosecuted under the greatest difficulties. More than 400 persons were engaged all day yesterday looking for evidences of the Chicora's loss. Their mission to-day will be to look for bodies.

Capt. Matthews of the life saving crew reported last evening he had found the foremost of the Chicora wedged in the ice two miles from shore. It looked as if it was broken off. Clerk Hancock said that with all of the promenade deck gone and the main deck swept clear the boat could still make headway. The Chicora had three water tight bulkheads, and if the two holds had been filled with water the engines will yet be safe.

MUSKOGEE, Mich., Jan. 25.—The steamer Nyack left yesterday for Milwaukee. She will make a circuitous trip in search of the Chicora.

RAID BY TRAIN ROBBERS.South Bound Cotton Belt Express Held Up by Masked Men.

PINE BLUFF, Ark., Jan. 25.—The south bound Cotton Belt train was held up and robbed by two masked men near McNeil at 7:05 last night. After an ineffectual attempt to open the safe in the express car the bandits compelled the messenger to assist them. The amount taken from the safe is estimated at $25,000. It is thought members of the Cook gang No. 2, who were implicated in the recent train robbery near Oganaw, Ark., and released for want of proof, are the men who did the job. The passengers were not molested nor was any one hurt by the bandits.

Another Issue of Bonds Imminent.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—It is claimed that at the end of the week the gold reserve will be down to or below $63,000,000, and rumors of another issue of 5 per cents are freely circulated, but nothing positive in regard to the matter is known. In August last the reserve fell to $52,000,000, and it is possible the administration may delay selling more bonds in the hope that congress may take action.

Confession by a Scott Lyncher.

O'NEILL, Neb., Jan. 25.—It is settled that the state has been furnished with the names of every man who assisted in hanging Barrett Scott. One of the lynchers has confessed. However, numbers of the vigilantes do not appear disturbed.

MADISON, Jan. 25.—A night session of the legislature will be held on Monday night, the members feeling that too much time is lost when the recess lasts from Friday until Tuesday. Hon. Fenner Kimball introduced a bill today amending the law as to insane asylum trustees. Other important bills introduced were:

Providing for the inspection of steam boilers.

Allowing cities to buy lands outside the limits for the isolation of patients with contagious diseases.

Licensing flumers.

The selection of jurors by a commission instead of by a county board.

Collecting a license on palace cars. The resolution for the examination of Labor Commissioner Dobbs' accounts, passed the assembly without opposition. Both houses meet Monday at half past eight.

ILLINOIS LEGISLATURE.Routine Proceedings in Upper and Lower Houses.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Jan. 25.—The evidence taken in behalf of the contestant in the contested election case of Wilson against McKinley was submitted to the senate yesterday by the secretary of state. It was referred to the committee on elections. Chairman Berry, of the committee on rules, made a report, which, besides creating three new committees—farm drainage, Lincoln's monument and fish and game—provides that a bill shall not be printed unless sanctioned by a majority of the senate, or at the request, or on favorable consideration of the committee to which it is referred. The report was adopted. A joint resolution was offered by Mr. Aspinwall that when the senate adjourns it stands adjourned until 10 o'clock Tuesday morning. The rules were suspended and the resolution adopted by a vote of 26 yeas to 12 nays, the democrats standing out against adjournment. The list of standing committees was then reported and adopted. On motion of Mr. Johnson, the committee on judiciary was enlarged from twenty-four to twenty-five, and Higbee's name was added. A message from the house was received stating that that body had concurred in the joint adjournment resolution. The senate then adjourned until Tuesday at 10 o'clock.

A joint resolution for a constitutional amendment was offered by Mr. McLaughlin in the house this morning. It asked that the constitution be amended in regard to revenues.

Mr. Curley introduced a bill providing that a person or corporation, after having discharged an employee, shall not by word or otherwise, attempt to prevent him from obtaining employment elsewhere. Punishment is fixed for such misdemeanor at from $500 to $1,000 fine and such employer shall be liable in a civil action.

A joint resolution from the senate for adjournment until 10 o'clock Tuesday was adopted and the house adjourned until that time.

KEEP THEM AT SEA.Secretary Herbert Thinks It Poor Policy to Tie Up Warships.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—It is expected at the navy department that three of Admiral Beardslee's squadron, now at Mare Island, will put to sea immediately. The vessels are the Bennington, Albatross and Ranger. Secretary Herbert has decided that it will be better to send the ships to sea in active service rather than allow them to remain tied up at the navy yard. Orders were sent to Admiral Beardslee to get the ships off as soon as possible, sending them wherever he pleased, so long as they were not far away from telegraph communication, with instructions to cruise off the Pacific coast.

Eloped with His Stepdaughter.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Jan. 25.—John H. Harvey, formerly a waiter in a restaurant in this city, has eloped with his pretty 17-year-old stepdaughter, leaving his wife in destitute circumstances. Harvey married his present wife at Santa Rosa in 1886. She was a widow and has three children, the eldest of whom, Florence, is the heroine of the present elopement. Mrs. Harvey is prostrated.

Riot of Unemployed in Buda Pesth.

BUDA PESTH, Jan. 25.—A mob of unemployed persons marched in a riotous manner through the principal streets yesterday and were dispersed by the police. Many people were hurt and several arrests were made. During the time of the disturbance the police blocked the streets leading to the Hungarian diet.

Bank President Kills Himself.

SANDUSKY, Ohio, Jan. 25.—George E. St. John, president of the German-American bank at Port Clinton, committed suicide by shooting yesterday in jail at Port Clinton. He had been convicted of forgery. He leaves a widow and two children.

NEW YORK, Jan. 22.—Edward Quigley, the forger, was sentenced to fifteen years and six months imprisonment this morning.

A JUROR UNDER SUSPICION.Objection Made to Ira Newell in the Glig Case.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Jan. 25.—Evidence taken yesterday goes to show that Ira Newell, the first juror selected in the Hayward case, has frequently expressed himself as opposed to capital punishment and that he has no sympathy with a woman who has been at all wayward, indicating that he was an admirable juror for the defense. A letter has been sent to the county attorney apprising him of these facts and this led to the investigation. Whether Newell will be impeached or not is a question. Three jurors were accepted in the case yesterday, making eight altogether.

Adry Hayward, who has resided in the Ramsey county jail for a number of weeks past, was brought over to Minneapolis yesterday and taken to the Hotel Waverly, where he will probably be quartered until he is brought into court to testify against his brother.

In an interview R. R. Odell, the attorney for Claus Blixt, made some rather damaging assertions. He said he did not expect to get his man off altogether, but he did believe he could keep him from hanging, and that he would get him convicted on the charge of manslaughter. He practically admitted that Blixt committed the murder, but said he was at the time under the influence of Hayward, and that the latter should be hanged. Hayward keeps up his spirits wonderfully. He takes the papers regularly and reads the accounts of the trial closely. He complains bitterly of the unfairness of the newspapers.

VICTIMS OF WINTER CHOLERA.Epidemic in Lorain, Ohio, Affects 250 of the Residents.

ELYRIA, Ohio, Jan. 25.—Alarm is felt in Lorain over the spreading of a malady resembling winter cholera. It has made its appearance in the last three days and 250 residents of the town are afflicted. Physicians say it can be aggravated into a fatal form. The cause of the epidemic has been found to be the impure hydrant water drawn from a crib in Lake Erie, only about a quarter of a mile from shore and near the mouth of Black river, into which a great amount of sewage is poured daily.

All Saloonkeepers Are Barred.

ELWOOD, Ind., Jan. 25.—A sensation among Knights of Pythias has been caused by the lodge here taking steps to expel all saloonkeepers from membership at once. The movement is in obedience to a decree passed by the supreme lodge at its recent session, and Elwood starts the ball rolling.

Troll Acquitted at St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Jan. 25.—Yesterday afternoon the jury impeached to try Sheriff Henry Troll on a charge of bribery at the November election returned a verdict of not guilty.

MOTHER DROWNS CHILDREN.Holds Their Heads in a Dishpan of Water Until They Are Dead.

BOSTON, Mass., Jan. 25.—Mrs. Maggie McBurnie, wife of James McBurnie, ended a protracted spree yesterday morning by drowning her two children Clara, aged 2½ years, and Clifford, aged 5. She then laid the little ones out on a bed in their night dresses, crossed their hands over their breasts, placed coppers on their eyes, and went to police station No. 16 and told the sergeant what she had done. The woman was sober when she related her story. She wouldn't tell how she drowned the children, though it appears she held their heads in a dishpan and filled it with water.

Kolb's Second Message as Governor.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Jan. 25.—R. F. Kolb, the populist, who claims to have been elected governor of Alabama last August, has issued his second message to the state legislature just received. The message, which is signed R. F. Kolb, governor, concludes with the declaration that "when usurping governors become amenable to law the revenge of an outraged state shall have been realized."

Losses by Bank of St. Charles.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Jan. 25.—The true condition of the Bank of St. Charles at Winona, which was recently closed by order of Gov. Nelson, has just made public by Bank Examiner Kenyon. The liabilities foot up $68,692. Assets may amount to $36,442. Kingsland, the president, who has absconded, is heavily indebted to the bank.

HAVERHILL, Mass., Jan. 25.—Seventy-five shoe firms have signed an agreement to submit the present labor troubles to arbitration.

CLEMENTSON CIRCULARS SENT

Decision Cited By His Opponents at Madison.

MADISON, Jan. 25.—Friends of Judge Clementson, who is in the race for justice of the supreme court, set out circulars today calling attention to the partisan decision of Justice Winslow in the gerrymander cases and urging his defeat next spring. The air has been full of talk regarding a non-partisan judiciary, and in this connection it is interesting to note that those who are outspoken for Clementson are emphatic in declaring that non-partisanship is no term to use in connection with Judge Winslow's candidacy. It is argued that his was a partisan appointment to start with, and that his action on the gerrymander matter accentuated his partisanship.

PACIFIC STORM ENDED.Twenty Feet of Snow Reported Along the Central Pacific Road.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Jan. 25.—At least there is a lull in the storm of the last eight days. But a lull does not mean a cessation of work on the part of the railroad men. The rotary plows have to be kept in constant operation to remove the great masses of snow that are continually breaking off the high banks that line the road for miles, and the drifts that are constantly forming in the narrow cuts through the hills. The snow depth is as follows: Truckee, 8 feet 8 inches; Summit, 20 feet; Cascade, 19 feet; Cisco, 18 feet; Emigrant Gap, 16 feet; Gold Run, 4 feet 4 inches.

The levee near Clarksburg, on the Yolo side of the Sacramento river, has given out and the hamlet is inundated, the residents being compelled to use boats to pass from house to house. The river is also overflowing the levees near Rio Vista and a vast stretch of country is under water, only the tops of the fence posts being visible.

BOLD ROBBERY IN TEXAS:Railway and Express Office Man Forced to Give Up $1,500.

SUGARLAND, Texas, Jan. 25.—A bold robbery of the railway and express office here has roused the town. A band of masked men rode to the office and demanded of Agent Adams the safe's contents. After a severe beating Adams opened the safe and the robbers took $1,500 in cash. A number of citizens undertook to intercept the robbers. A sharp battle took place, but the highwaymen escaped to the Brazos swamps. A posse started in pursuit and returned with four men under arrest—Crane, Thompson, Denton and Flowers. The posse is still scouring the country for others.

Abolish Walking Delegates.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Jan. 25.—The Building Trades' Council last night abolished the office of "walking delegate." A new constitution was adopted which boldly asserts that strikes are failures, that boycotts are un-American and both methods are discontinued. Arbitration is the method that will be employed in settling difficulties between employers and employees in St. Louis hereafter.

Reporter Murdered by a Judge.

BRAZORIA, Texas, Jan. 25.—R. McChinn, a newspaper correspondent of Velasco, was killed here by Judge Harry Masterson. McChinn was a witness in an important suit. Masterson surrendered. Eye witnesses say the murder was a cold blooded assassination.

Takes Her Life with Carbolic Acid.

LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 25.—A memorial was presented to the lower house of the legislature here requesting the Nebraska congressional delegation to work for the deportation of Mgr. Satelli.

NEWS OF OLD ROCK IS HERE SUMMED UP

MILTON MAN HAS AN ODD GOVERNMENT CONTRACT.

Collect Mice For the Smithsonian Institute—Aid For Nebraska Sufferers—Fulton's Old Mill Sold—Wedding At Fairfield—Other Items From Other Places.

Floyd Coon, of Milton, has a contract with the Smithsonian Institute at Washington, and if you should guess for the remainder of your days, you would never be able to arrive at the nature of it, for it is a queer one—to supply that institution with a collection of all the mice of various species in Wisconsin. This has been a pretty lively week in that good town, and nothing has escaped The Gazette's sharp eyed correspondent. Their sympathies and good works are not confined to their own neighborhood, as is shown by the fact that the King's Daughters recently served an oyster supper, and the proceeds, $17, as well as several barrels of clothing, have been sent to the Nebraska sufferers. In a religious way, too, they share their advantages with others, for Rev. Frank Richardson, a son of R. Richardson, preaches Saturday in the Seventh-Day Baptist church at Chicago. He is now located at Genoa Junction. The union revivals, which are being held at the college town are doing much good, and are not yet concluded.

Fairfield folk were much interested in the wedding of Miss Gertrude Dykeman and Wilson More, which was recently solemnized. They were also interested in a most enjoyable "Junior concert."

A. L. Rose of Clear Lake, fell the other day and broke two ribs, which accident will inconvenience him for some time. In the meantime, however, he is planning to have the Clear Lake Inn repainted inside and out as soon as the weather will permit.

How Pliny Norcross' old mill property at Fulton has been sold to John Oleson. "Hoss talk" is quite plentiful in that town just at present and several Fultonites have promising animals. The Gazette's correspondents all over the county are sending in these crisp bits of news all of which and much more will be found in their letters which follow.

MILTON MAN'S ODD CONTRACT.

Floyd Coon To Collect Mice For the U. S.—Other Happenings.

MILTON JUNCTION, Jan. 25. Floyd Coon has a contract in the Smithsonian Institute at Washington to furnish them mice of all the species natural to Wisconsin. Now if Floyd can make a contract with some one for all the English sparrows in the state and fill it, both men and women would be happy. The union revival meetings were adjourned on Monday and Wednesday evenings. The attendance shows no falling off despite the Arctic weather and the interest seems to be increasing. The music is a feature of the meetings that is very attractive. The oyster supper served by the King's Daughters on Monday evening was quite liberally patronized despite the "blizzard" that prevailed and to give all an opportunity to aid a worthy cause it was repeated Tuesday evening. As a result the Nebraska sufferers get a cash remittance from the daughters of seventeen dollars in addition to several barrels of clothing. Rev. Frank C. Richardson, pastor of the Jeona Junction M. E. church, son of R. Richardson, of this village occupies the pulpit of the Seventh Day Baptist church in Chicago Saturday, Jan. 26. Messrs. W. P. Clarke, W. H. Wilbur and A. D. Burdick attended the camp fire at Edgerton, Tuesday evening and had a jolly good time. Samuel Craig died Sunday at the home of his son-in-law, James Burham. Funeral services were held at the house Tuesday morning. Rev. C. E. Carpenter officiating. D. P. Freeborn was called to Richland Center early in the week by the illness of his brother. Thermometers marked from 6 to 10 degrees below zero Thursday morning. Emery Burdick of Janesville, was here on business Tuesday. Albert Barnhart began moving his household goods to the village this week. He has rented the Richardson house on Madison avenue. Fred Gould of Lima, was a visitor here this week. Martha, Annie and Libbie Nelson were called to their home at Pine River, Thursday, by a telegram announcing the sudden death of their brother.

HAPPY WEDDING AT FAIRFIELD

Wilson More and Gertrude Dykeman Wedded—Entertainment a Success.

FAIRFIELD, Jan. 25.—A very pleasing event occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Dykeman on Tuesday evening of this week, it being the marriage of their daughter Gertrude, to Wilson More, Rev. B. E. White officiating. Both young people are well known in this vicinity and their many friends join in wishing them a happy life. Mr. and Mrs. More will visit the brides sister at Magnoketa, Iowa for a short time and they will then begin housekeeping on what was formerly known as the "Mills farm." The guests from a distance were Mrs. Ada More, Milton; Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Welch, Miss Harvey and Miss Grace Blanchard Delevan; Mrs. Maude Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. F. Parks, Mr. and Mrs. Will Johnson and Miss Gile of Darien; Mr. and Mrs. J. Pangborn, Miss Franc Woodman and Miss Agnes Douglas, Clinton and Miss Carrie Dalton of Allen Grove. Miss Elma Custer goes to Chicago this week for an extended visit. Mrs. C. H. Robinson has returned from a delightful trip to Texas. Quarterly meeting services at the M. E. church next Sunday. A surprise party is planned for this week. At the junior concert a large crowd and an interesting programme proved that it was a success. The songs entitled "Little Mothers" and "Our Dollies" was so pleasingly sung that they responded to encores. The net proceeds of the eve were, $12.50.

NORCROSS' FULTON MILL IS SOLD.

John Oleson Buys It and Will Soon Take Possession.

FULTON, Jan. 25.—John Oleson has bought the old mill property of Mr. Norcross and will move in soon. He finds a home in Wisconsin better adapted to his needs than in Norway. Miss Josie Kelly from Edgerton attended church here Sunday morning and was the guest of Mrs. E. Wallen's. Mrs. Gordon Dodge went to Elkhorn last Saturday to spend the winter. Mrs. Mary Fasset from Edgerton, has been spending the past week with friends and relatives in town. John Buchta has returned from Whitewater where he has been since Christmas. There was a large gathering of little folks at Will Saxby's last Friday evening in honor of Richard's sixth birthday. They all declared they had an enjoyable time. Miss Marion Green entertained a number of her young friends on Wednesday evening last. Refreshments were served and with music, the evening was altogether too short. Mrs. M. M. Whitcome from Janesville made several calls among friends Wednesday, returning to Edgerton for a few days visit. She will return to Janesville Saturday. Word was received Tuesday by relatives that Mrs. Nancy McLain had passed over the river of death. She lived here for many years. She has one brother who lives here, G. S. Dodge. Eddie Wallen was up from Janesville to visit at his home over Sunday. Mrs. James Drown and Mrs. George Murwin spent last Friday down the river with James Murwin and family. The Mite society held at Mrs. Brown was well attended and a very enjoyable time had by all present. The next meeting will be held at Mrs. W. H. Pease's, Friday evening, February 1. All come out and have a jolly time. C. W. Atwood has one young colt that is doing well. He also has Charlie Britton, a brother that showed well last year in his class. George Murwin's Fulton maid is acting well for a green one and shows wonderful bursts of speed. With several from Shaff Allen's young ones we may expect a surprise party when the bell tolls.

CLEAR LAKE MAN'S RIBS BROKEN.

A. L. Rose Painfully Injured By a Fall—Hotel to Be Fixed Up.

CLEAR LAKE, Jan. 25.—A. L. Rose was painfully injured a short time ago when he fell and fractured two ribs. Mark Taft is attending to Mr. Rose's chores. Mrs. Buten's little girl Lora is quite sick with fever. Dr. Hull of Milton Junction is in attendance. Bennie Tabbs is sick with inflammatory rheumatism. Mrs. L. Gilbertson of Janesville, visited her daughter, Mrs. C. Stockman last Sunday. The rain and fog of last Sunday and Sunday night put the tobacco in fine shape so the farmers had a chance to take it down and all of them took advantage of the opportunity. There is very little of it left harging, and the leaf is on an average better this year than last. A. L. Rose expects to have his Clear Lake Inn painted inside and out as soon as the weather will permit. Rose Allen has been sick. Sid Pierce is getting better. James Pierce, agent for the Farmers' Insurance Company was around the other day getting money to pay losses for the Harmony company.

GOSSIP OF THE STATE TOWNS

The Douglas county board has appropriated $1,500 to send Editor Frank A. Flower to Europe to meet the crowned heads with reference to a deep ship canal from Superior and Duluth to the Atlantic ocean. Mr. Flower is secretary of the deep water ways commission, and will go in company with Oliver W. Howland, of Toledo, who is president of the commission.

MISS HATTIE LOVINOY of La Crosse, seems to be the victim of many accidents. Just before Christmas she was badly burned and bruised by a fire in a store in which she was employed and since that time she has been in the hospital. Yesterday in attempting to curl her hair she set fire to her gown and was badly burned so that her stay in the hospital has been lengthened.

An employee of the Northwestern road, found the dead body of an infant near Van Dyne. The child was well dressed and apparently very young.

FARMERS ARE PROUD OF THEIR '94 LEAF

QUALITY HIGH ALTHOUGH WEIGHT IS LOW.

Thomas H. Edden and Others Declare That Dealers Are Attempting To Break Down the Value Of Rock County Tobacco—Drouth Reduced The Size.

County leaf growers dispute the estimate put on their '94 crop by dealers. It is not true, they say, that the tobacco was stunted by drouth so as to be low grade. Thomas H. Edden is one of the growers who has a word to say. He has raised tobacco for years.

"I do not remember when I raised a better crop of tobacco than the one in 1894," said he. "This attempt of the buyers to belittle our tobacco is all for effect. They want to frighten us farmers and get our tobacco for nothing. In order to do this they commence their fault finding as soon as the tobacco is planted, and keep it up until they get it into their warehouses. We had a very dry season last summer, and as a result tobacco did not grow, at first, as it usually grows in Rock county, but after it commenced to mature, it developed finely, and as a rule, throughout the county, I believe the crop is above the average."

Not a Heavy Crop But Very Good.

The same opinion was expressed by a large number of growers who have been in the city the past few days. A town of Center grower insists that there never was a finer crop of tobacco grown in that town. While in a few instances a poor crop may be found he says, the rule is that the tobacco is far ahead of the average crop in quality. The season for curing was very favorable and the tobacco is all in fine condition.

La Prairie growers substantiate these statements, and laugh at the buyers who are endeavoring to belittle the quality of the tobacco in order to keep the prices down to the very lowest point.

Growers generally, admit that the crop, owing to the continued dry spell during the summer, is not as heavy as anticipated, but insist that while the yield per acre is not up to their expectations, the quality is finer and will grade up better.

WANTS MAGAZINES CARED FOR

"Student" Offers a Suggestion for the Public Library Managers.

EDITOR GAZETTE.—One thing that strikes the eye of a visitor at the library is the liberality of the city as shown by the number of monthly magazines displayed. These magazines are very valuable to the student and general public, and ought to be well taken care of. While in the library yesterday I had occasion to try to find the January issue of one of the leading periodicals, and found numbers for all the months back to September before I found the one I was looking for. I also noticed that there seemed to be about the same number of the other magazines on the tables, some of them in a very dilapidated condition. I then passed over to the table set apart for the weeklies, and found it in far worse condition. Some issues of such papers as the Scientific American and Harper's Weekly were practically destroyed, and others in very bad shape. The Youths' Companion, Pall Mall and other papers were rapidly going the same way. I also noticed that the two last copies were almost always in good shape. Should not a reform here be in order? Would the following plan do?

Have the librarian set apart one of the tables for the latest issues of the monthlies, and the other table for the preceding issues. Then when a new issue is received, place it on the first table, promote the copy there to the second table, and graduate the copy on this table to its proper place in the files. It would also be a good improvement to have the shelves of the tables divided by partitions and the name of the magazine neatly printed on both sides of the table. This would relieve much mental swearing, on the part of those looking for late issues and save money for the library, by keeping the files clean and unbroken. As to the weeklies, there should not be more than three weeks' issues, two would be better, on the table at a time. This is particularly true of such valuable papers as the Scientific American.

TRAMPS SPREAD SMALL POX.

Medical Experts Discuss How to Prevent the Scourge from Spreading.

"The smaller cities and rural districts in Wisconsin can not expect freedom from the danger of an epidemic of small pox until the tramp question is satisfactorily settled," is the opinion expressed by Dr. J. R. Barnett. "Tramps are at present," continued Dr. Barnett, "the principal if not the only means by which the disease is spread over the country. Small pox exists in the larger cities, Chicago or Milwaukee for instance, practically all the time. Tramps leaving those cities every day and going out into the country, and as a means for the dissemination of disease germs the average tramp can hardly be surpassed. When we stop these vagabonds from roaming over the country we shall take a long step in the prevention of the spreading of small-pox. In every case that has occurred in any of the cities of the Fox river valley strict quarantine measures have been adopted, and were it not for the danger just explained it would appear to me that the disease would be stopped where it is now."

Dr. G. B. Reilly, of Appleton, expressed himself as follows on the same subject:

"Small pox in Appleton is confined to two houses, they being the two in which it first appeared. One death has occurred, and the other patients, exactly how many there are, I do not know, have the disease in a moderately light form. A strict and careful quarantine of the premises has been established and I think it will be confined to the houses where it now exists. Neither do I apprehend that the disease will be likely to spread to other cities in this part of the state."

"There are no cases of small pox in Kaukauna," said Dr. H. B. Tanner. "It is entirely probable that scattered cases of the disease will exist among the cities along the Fox river during the remainder of the winter and it may possibly reach Green Bay. Still I do not apprehend any serious epidemic. Strict quarantine measures are adopted wherever it appears and so many people have been vaccinated during the past year or two that danger from the disease has largely disappeared. Too much caution cannot, however, be used by the authorities in the matter."

GOOD ROADS DRAW TRADE TO THE CITY.

JANESVILLE COULDN'T MAKE A BETTER INVESTMENT.

Every Rainy Spell An Advertisement For the Town that Can be Reached Over Solid Stone Highways—Ex-Mayor Rogers of Madison Discusses the Plan.

Janesville could make no better investment than to build a system of stone roads out of the city. Such road would draw trade for miles. They would make every rainy spell an advertisement for the city and get farmers more and more into the habit of coming this way. The plan was endorsed very strongly by ex-Mayor W. H. Rogers, of Madison, at the Good Roads banquet in Milwaukee.

"When I was mayor of Madison," said Mr. Rogers, "I was in favor of building roads of macadam into the country for the benefit of Madison people, after the roads in Madison were all built. I wanted to build the roads out into the country, and it was done. I signed several hundred dollars worth of city orders for work done on the country roads, and I never heard that there was any complaint on the part of the taxpayers. There is one idea about this good roads movement that has come to my mind, but which I didn't want to mention at the banquet last evening for the fear that those present might think that I was trying to throw cold water on it, when in reality I am one of the most enthusiastic supporters of the plan. The idea occurred to me that it was not right to ask the farmers to keep the roads up. The farmers are obliged to render their lands to the public under the right of eminent domain, of course receiving a compensation that seems to the purchasers just and right. In other words, the powers that be can go ahead and take any part of a man's property for a road, paying him their own price. Nevertheless, the farmers are required by law to keep up the roads and to work out their road taxes. I hold that the farmer is not nearly so much interested in the road tax as the residents of contiguous villages and cities, but nevertheless they are obliged under the present system to work the roads and keep them in repair, after having originally given them for the public good. The poll tax is not collected in cities. That is well known. I think there is likely to be some legislation on the subject."

OLD VETERAN MUSTERED IN

Silas S. Thomas Joins the G. A. R. and the Army of Beneditts.

Silas S. Thomas of Milton and Mrs. E. M. Jordan of Chicago, were united in marriage at the residence of Rev. E. M. Dunn last evening. On the previous evening the groom was mustered in as a member of A. D. Hamilton post G. A. R., but on the last occasion joined an army that puts the grand army in the shade. The bride was for many years a resident of Milton, but for some time past has resided in Chicago, and is a noted worker in the Woman's Relief Corps. The happy couple will make Milton their home and congratulations and best wishes are in order.

THIS DAY IN HISTORY
1502—Princess Margare, daughter of Henry VII of England, married to James IV of Scotland; union of the crowns.
1759—Robert Burns, poet, born near Ayr; died 1796.
1772—James Hogg, "Ettrick Shepherd," poet, born; died 1855.
1791—George Selwyn, famous English wit, died; born 1730.
1813—James Marion Simms, medical writer and inventor, born in Lancaster county, S. C.; died in New York city 1883.
1894—French entered Timbuktu. This important town of central Africa, on the borders of the Sahara, dates from the twelfth century, yet had not been visited by Europeans, except furtively, until the occupation by the French. It fell under their control nominally by reason of the defeat of native tyrants by French forces operating in the Sudan.

THE ARBITRATION BILL
The arbitration bill now on file in Madison is likely to provoke much debate. It provides that in case of a dispute arising between railroads and their employees either party to the controversy, or any ten citizens, whose interests are injuriously affected by the trouble, may apply to the circuit court, and that tribunal can cite the parties to appear and settle the controversy, or if either party objects to action by the court, the court may refer the matter to a board of arbitrators which shall be empowered to hear and settle it. After the verdict has been pronounced the workmen may refuse to work for the wages fixed, and must not interfere with the running of the road or the hiring of other men. The award can be enforced against the companies in the same manner as any other judgments are enforced, but it is expressly provided that if any company shall refuse to comply with the terms, and injury thereby arises, it shall be obliged to pay three times the actual damages sustained.

There may be some doubt as to whether such an act would be constitutional, especially the clause levying excessive damages; but it is quite as unobjectionable as either the Wright or Olney bill before congress, and entitled to much more respect than those half way measures. If the experiment of compulsory arbitration is to be tried, let it be applied without any false pretenses, and let it bear equally upon both parties to the controversies. The regular courts are in some respects commissions of compulsory arbitration, and if such a principle is to be endorsed it is useless and unnecessary to go outside these tribunals. The Wisconsin bill is more sensible and consistent than the other proposed arbitration measures in placing the initiative of proceedings in the regularly established courts. Compulsory arbitration is a misnomer, because the term arbitration implies a mutual and voluntary agreement to leave the settlement of a dispute to third parties; but if legislation can facilitate the settlement of disputes by peaceful means, the Wisconsin measure seems to promise better results than any other so far suggested.

ROCK IS STILL HONEST.
Southern Wisconsin gets unpleasant advertising down east. Take this paragraph from the American Cultivator:

Wisconsin dairies are making what is called filled cheese. It is made from separator milk from which the last atom of butter fat has been taken. To give it sufficient richness cotton seed oil is then added to the milk. The curd from this looks to be rich, but on eating cheese made from it the cheese is found to be almost indigestible, giving dyspepsia to those having the strongest digestion. This new product should be prohibited as vigorously as imitation butter should be.

A few cents' profit on each cheese, and a group of factories are doing their best to ruin the state's reputation. Eastern criticism shows how necessary food laws have become and how rare are the factories which, like those in Rock county, are making full cream cheese and nothing else.

MOVED BY SILENCE.
Disappointed litigants and labor leaders who desire to punish Judge Ricks for his interference with the strikes at Toledo and other points in Ohio two or three years ago, are at the bottom of the recent movement to secure his impeachment. They succeeded in finding the basis of a charge against him in his technical violation of a law years ago, when he was clerk of the court over which he presides. It was a sin of omission rather than commission, and no criminal intent can be found in it. The congressional committee has found that Judge Ricks cannot be successfully impeached and is sorry it undertook the job.

The republican programme of legislation upon the tariff so as to provide the government with a revenue sufficient to meet its expenditures, if Mr. Cleveland calls an extra session of congress, doesn't seem to meet with democratic approval. But that will not prevent its being carried out.

There are several members of the house, Jones of Virginia and Talbot of South Carolina, for instance—who might with advantage to themselves borrow the padlock which Congressman Sibley, of Pa., recently took off his lips.

Blood—human blood—makes a spot that is difficult to wash out of an administration's record, and the republicans in congress who have focussed the country's attention upon the spot simply perform their duty.

There is no longer the slightest doubt about the "pull" of "Andy" Carnegie with this administration, when a member of the cabinet openly lobbies against what is objectionable to "Andy."

Well, Mr. Cleveland says he has nothing to conceal concerning his present policy toward Hawaii. That is a change indeed. Heretofore his desire has been to conceal everything.

Uncle Charlie Dana swallowed a big dose of his own medicine when he acknowledged having printed in his own paper a spurious picture of the new French president.

Certain Nebraskans are alarmed at the rapidly lessening distance between being lynchers and being lynched.

The principal trouble with the case of hope that Congressman Springer has is that it isn't contagious.

The Tennessee democrats will find a stolen governorship a very vexatious thing to have on their hand.

If Mr. Burns is a wise man he will abandon the idea of coming to America on another visit.

Senator Gorman has no idea of giving up the role of the in the democratic china closet.

MCCORMICK, the "Riverside Whistler" has no peer in this country in his special line. Everybody who can should hear his "Echoes of the Forest" at the armory this evening.

THE 136 anniversary of Robert Burns' birthday will be the great popular event of the season. A crowded house and general good time is confidently predicted by all at the armory tonight.

THE talent secured for the Burns anniversary tonight is better and more costly than ever before. The Caledonian Society deserve credit for their enterprise in providing such a high class entertainment.

C. SHERMAN SUING FOR $175 WAGES

SAYS THIS IS DUE OUT OF EIGHT HUNDRED DOLLARS.

Note Signed By Plaintiff Was Bought
By Defendant and Presented As An Offset—There Were Objections and the Law Suit Resulted—Local Notes.

JUDGE BENNETT in the circuit court today, listened to the testimony in the mechanic's lien case, of C. Sherman against Shipley Stebbins. Sherman did carpenter work for Stebbins near Evansville, which amounted to about eight hundred dollars. Stebbins paid all except $175, and to liquidate this last sum bought a note given by Sherman and tried to turn this in as an offset. It was refused. Testimony was taken today and the case will be argued by Ethers, Jeffris, Fifield & Matheson for plaintiff, and by Dunwiddie, Goldin & Wheeler for defendant at some future date.

Rev. Dr. A. A. WILLITS greeted 1300 friends in the Congregational church and chatted with them entertainingly on "A Summer Flight Over the Sea." It was a chat more than a lecture with bits of reminiscences, laughable experience and personal opinion intermingled, but it was thoroughly entertaining and was well received. Rev. Thomas Dixon will be the next speaker in the course.

The ladies of this city will no doubt recall with pleasure the former visits of Mrs. C. B. Crane of Chicago and New York. She will be at the Myers House Friday and Saturday, Jan. 25 and 26 with a full and beautiful line of stamped and embroidered goods and materials for the same. We bespeak for her the kind attention of all ladies who need goods of this kind. Mrs. George L. Carrington.

The board of directors of the Wisconsin Odd Fellows' Mutual Insurance company, of which board Hon. Cyrus Miner is a member, met at Milwaukee yesterday. The members express themselves as gratified with the condition of its affairs. It is the only Odd Fellows' insurance company in this state recognized by the Grand lodge of the state.

ARTICLES reincorporating the bank of Evansville, were filed with Register of Deeds Rowe today. The incorporators are, L. T. Pullen, George L. Pullen, C. W. Rowley, A. C. Gray and B. F. Emery. The capital stock is $25,000, divided into one hundred shares of $25 each. The corporation expires on the 28th day of January 1915.

JOHN CLIFFORD, who was here as assistant manager of J. W. Johnstone, of the Majestic range last summer, was in the city today looking the ground over. He has succeeded so well that the Majestic people have given him the state of Wisconsin in which to sell the Majestic range, and made him a full fledged manager of a crew.

BOWDISH GOES TO GREEN BAY

He is Now Managing Editor of the Gazette and Makes Things Hum.

W. A. Bowdish has left the Milwaukee Evening Wisconsin, where he has been telegraph editor, and is now managing editor of the Green Bay Gazette. Metropolitan methods of news handling make a big improvement in the Gazette and give a sparkle so every page. Mr. Bowdish is one of the most energetic and enterprising newspaper men in the state and has for years been Managing Editor Bleyer's right hand man on the Wisconsin.

He is succeeded in the Milwaukee office by T. S. Andrews who has proved his good qualities by his handling of state telegraph and sporting news.

HIGH PRICES FOR FIRE WOOD.

Local Dealers Said To Be Too Stiff In Their Rates.

The sliding scale on the prices of cord wood don't seem to slide this year despite the fact that sliding is good.

"Out in Browntown," said a Janesville man today, "you can buy second-growth oak for $2.10 a cord. Moreover, an Iowa man has lately written to a friend of mine asking him what he could get for oak in Janesville. He was willing to accept almost any offer. My friend wasn't selling wood so he didn't buy."

Are You Loaded?

If so, we can help you unload, if you desire.

We want to buy a nice modern, small house, of say seven or eight rooms, well located, at less than it is worth. You will note that it must be a BARGAIN. For such a house under such circumstances you will find a cash buyer at our office. If you are loaded, unload. Yours very truly, GEO. L. & SARAH H. CARRINGTON.

Notice to Contractors and Builders. Having purchased the Shoppell Norris planing mill, I am now prepared to furnish estimates on all house-furnishing goods such as sash, doors, blinds, moulding, etc.

I take possession of the mill February 1st, until that time please call at the Hub, 103 W. Milwaukee street. J. B. GREEN.

Fire in a New York Hotel.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—Fire broke out in the kitchen on the top floor of the Hotel Vendome about 7 o'clock and had gained considerable headway before the firemen got to work. Few of the guests were astir when the alarm was given. There was no panic. The damage, which was mostly by water, is estimated at $20,000.

Soft Jobs for Moonshiners.

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., Jan. 25.—A sensation has been created here by the announcement that prisoners sent to jail here to serve out sentences for "moonshining" are given excellent accommodations in the way of jobs outside the prison and the government is obliged to pay the jailer for keeping them.

Maine's Novel Temperance Plan.

AUGUSTA, Maine, Jan. 25.—Representative Bartlett has introduced a bill in the legislature providing for the offer of a standing reward of $50 to all persons who, after taking the whisky cure, shall, for twelve months, abstain from the use of liquors.

Bourgeois Gives It Up.

PARIS, Jan. 25.—M. Bourgeois, to whom was intrusted the formation of a new cabinet, notified President Faure that there was no prospect of his success and asked to be relieved from his task.

Cure for the Convicted Drunkards.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Jan. 25.—A bill introduced yesterday provides that upon conviction for drunkenness for the third time the person convicted shall be sent to Rochester and subjected to the Keeley cure.

Output of German Iron.

BERLIN, Jan. 25.—The output of raw iron for the German empire during the year 1894 was 5,559,322 tons, an increase of 606,174 tons over the output of 1893.

DEATH'S DAY'S WORK WAS A LARGE ONE

SEVERAL WELL KNOWN PEOPLE WERE CALLED.

John Cummings of Bradford, and Elmer Parmley of Evansville, Are Among Them—Funeral of Mrs. George C. McLean and Mrs. Emeline Bullard Held.

John Cummings of the town of Bradford died yesterday afternoon, and will be buried at Emerald Grove tomorrow, funeral services being held at Emerald Grove at 11 o'clock tomorrow morning. Mr. Cummings was born November 27, 1808, at Chester, New York, and came to Wisconsin in June 1844, locating in Johnstown, and after a few years moved to Bradford township and opened a store. Some years ago he went to Dakota but soon returned to his old home on account of poor health and advanced age.

Elmer Parmley.

Elmer Parmley of Evansville, whose serious illness was mentioned in The Gazette a few days ago, died this morning.

Mr. Parmley was about forty-five years old and leaves a wife and two children. He was born and raised in the town of Center and was a son of James Parmley. He has visited the west several times in the hopes of benefiting his health, but without finding the change beneficial to any noticeable extent.

Funeral of Mrs. G. C. McLean.

The remains of Mrs. Nancy A. McLean, wife of George C. McLean, were laid in Oak Hill this afternoon. Private funeral services, conducted by Rev. E. H. Pence of the P. resbyterian church, were held at 2 o'clock this afternoon at the home on South Main street after which the remains were taken to the cemetery. The pall bearers were W. T. Vankirk, Edward Ruger, Alex. Galbraith, George Scarcliff, Archie Reid.

Funeral of Mrs. Emeline Bullard.

The funeral of Mrs. Emeline Bullard will be held at the home of her grandson, Jay Walker, 163 Center avenue, Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, Rev. E. H. Pence officiating. On Monday morning the remains will be taken to Reed's Corners, Fond du Lac county, for interment.

Teeloft.

The infant son of Charles Treeloft, 453 Ravine street, died this morning. The funeral was held this afternoon, the interment being at Oak Hill.

"Last Days of Pompeii."

B. LINDEMANN & Company's scenic and dramatic spectacle, "Pompeii," an adaptation of Bulwer's famous historical novel, that is to be presented at Myers Grand Tuesday, Jan. 29, is an attraction of unusual merit it would seem, from the press throughout the country. We quote the following clipping:

"Last days of Pompeii" is the best attraction that ever graced the Grand Opera House stage.—St. Joseph (Mo.) Herald.

A Rare Opportunity.

We have a nicely furnished house and a delightful location that we want to let to an agreeable man and wife who will board the owner. This is a chance to get a beautiful home on very easy terms. Call and see us about it. Yours Very Truly, GEO. L. & SARAH H. CARRINGTON.

J. M. BOSTWICK & Sons have just received direct from New York, a large and choice assortment of jet ornaments for dress trimmings, and jet and steel buckles and slides. They were selected by Mr. Robert M. Bostwick, who is now in New York.

The latest advices from Mr. Robert M. Bostwick are that goods were never more beautiful or lower in price. We will receive next week the largest shipment of new goods that have yet been received here this season. Remember we have facilities for buying goods not enjoyed by ordinary concerns. The Big Store. J. M. Bostwick & Sons.

GET READY FOR ANOTHER BLIZZARD

Drifting Snow and Poor Railroad Service Is the Prospect.

Superintendent Collins telegraphed to Agent P. L. Hinrichs, of the St. Paul road today, that heavy snow and a severe northeast gale was the best anybody could expect tonight. Saturday and Sunday are to be much colder. The official bulletin for Janesville reads:

Forecast: Severe storms attended by drifting snows, likely to interfere with railroad travel tonight and Saturday. Dangerous gales on lakes.

GEORGE C. McLEAN VERY LOW

Has Been Falling All Day and His Recovery Doubtful.

George C. McLean is very low. Mr. McLean was taken suddenly ill on Wednesday. He was thought to be improving, but suffered a relapse at 5 o'clock this morning and failed slowly during the day.

Mrs. Alice Smith, a daughter of Mrs. McLean, was unable to attend the funeral of her mother this afternoon on account of serious illness, and her sister, Mrs. Bigelow, was unable to leave her carriage at the grave.

TO PUT GATES ON C. & N. W. TRAINS

Platforms to Be Automatically Fenced In When the Train Starts

It is said that the Chicago & Northwestern railway company is about to equip its passenger trains with safety gates which close and lock automatically when the train starts out of a station, thus preventing passengers from jumping off and on while the train is in motion. The plan would necessitate the employment of an extra man on each train thus equipped.

ICE HARVEST OVER THIS WINTER

Quality of the Crystal Is the Highest Seen in Years.

The ice harvest in Janesville is about over. Ice houses are full of the best ice harvested in many years.

"The blocks are remarkably free and clear of snow and foreign substances," said a dealer today.

Small forces of men are still busy on the ice fields filling private ice houses in different parts of this city, but all these will be filled by tomorrow night.

FAMILY KEPT IN BY FEVER

John A. Dennett and His Four Children Are Ill.

John A. Dennett of the town of Janesville and his four oldest children are confined to the house with scarlet fever.

An Envious Record.

In April, 1891, when E. J. Smith took the management of T. J. Ziegler's stock of clothing, he had turned over to him $19,500 of clothing, a great deal of which had been in the store ever since the day it was inaugurated. At this time high cut vests, short coats and tight legged spring bottom pants had just completed their usefulness on earth, and the bulk of the stock consisted of this class of goods, so that Mr. Smith had $19,500 worth of very unsalable clothing. In looking over the present stock now ready to invoice he showed us exactly what was left of that 1891 stock viz:—4 child's suits, 15 men's suits, 9 boys suits, $25, worth of furnishing goods, all the balance of the stock he has on hand is Mr. Smith's buying and has been bought since January 1, 1892. There is not a cleaner stock on the face of the earth, as there is scarcely a clothing store in existence, that has been running twenty-five years, but will find stock on hand as old as the store and some of them have lots of it. It will do a persons eyes good just to step in there and see the bright new clothing, the beauty of which is it is not broken, all suits are full; and when a person calls for a certain sized suit it is there, coat, pants and vest. Advertising is a great medium to sell clothing. Some houses which bought clothing four and five years ago at the high tariff prices had better dispose of it and buy more at low tariff prices than let it lay on their counters, get seedy and invoice from year to year at the original price paid.

Just For a Week

And just as a FUROR DEAL, we offer a very comfortable home in the Fourth ward for $450. Just think of it, FOUR HUNDRED AND FIFTY DOLLARS will buy an almost new house of three good rooms, woodshed, good well of water; nicely located, and as a fact, it would be cheap at $600. If you have $100 cash to pay down you can have this place and pay the balance $5 or $6 per month. You never saw such a chance before and you never will again to get a good little home. This chance will cease within a week whether we sell or do not sell. Come and see us about it. Yours very truly, GEO. L. & SARAH H. CARRINGTON.

Can Prices Go Lower?

$7.50 for fine suits or overcoats; reduced from $15, $18 and $20.

$2 for fine black or cassimere pants, worth $5 and $6.

98 cents for nobby Derbys or fine soft hats, worth $1.50 and $2.

50 cents for silk plush or cloth caps.

50 cents for fine white dress shirts or colored shirts, worth $1.

25 cents for flannel or unlaundried white shirts, worth 50 cents.

10 cents for linen collars and cuffs.

S. D. GRUBB.

CLAIMS ON ASHTON ARE NOT ALLOWED

JUDGE DUNWIDDIE DECIDES AGAINST ALL THREE.

Schoolcrafts Cannot Recover From the Estate—Dr. L. J. Barrows' Will Makes His Wife and Son Sole Heirs—M. M. Phelps Is E. H. Bennett's Executor.

All three of the Schoolcraft claims against the estate of Matthew R. Ashton were disallowed.

Judge Brooks Dunwiddie, of Menominee, who presided in Judge Sale's place yesterday, hearing testimony in relation to the claims, rendered a decision last evening.

The will of the late Dr. L. J. Barrows has been filed in the county court. The testator bequeaths all his property to his wife and only son, Frank Barrows, and appoints the son the executor. There is no inventory of the estate filed.

Hon. M. M. Phelps has been appointed administrator, with the will, of the late Ensign H. Bennett.

$15 GIVEN AWAY.

April 1 Prentice & Evenson Will Give This Amount In Cash.

On the first day of April Prentice & Evenson, the druggists opposite the post office, will give away $15 in two prizes, in the following manner. The person who makes the most complete words out of "Cuticream, P. & E. O. P. O.," will receive $10 in gold and the one second in the race $5 in gold. Each list of words must be accompanied by a Cuticream label with the signature of the firm. Prentice & Evenson, and the date stamped across the front, otherwise your work will be for nothing, also please number your words so they will not have to count them, only look at the footing. Mules Open a Gate.

Professor Wilder relates of a quartermaster's mules at Pensacola, that being shut out of a grass plot, one of them opened the gate held closed by a ball and chain, by hooking his head under the ball and chain, and then, after five mules had passed in, one of those inside backed up and held the gate open for the one which had first opened the gate for his companions.

Fast Records at Skating.

REDBANK, N. J., Jan. 25.—Johnson, Mesher, and Davidson broke some world records yesterday morning skating with the wind. ## ROUTED THE BRITISH.

Single-Handed and Without Firing a Shot or Being Seen.

The residents of Staten island, during its occupancy by the British in Revolutionary times, were prohibited from keeping fire-arms of any description in their houses. A few of them, nevertheless, says the Argonaut, succeeded in concealing guns, and among these was a young man named Housman. One morning, after the fall of a light snow, the young man was out with his gun in quest of rabbits, when a sudden turn in the path brought him in sight of two soldiers. The two parties saw each other simultaneously, and each stopped. Housman thought of the loss of his gun, and possibly of his life; but the sense of danger was but a stimulus to his coolness and daring. He suddenly turned his back on the soldiers, and stepping around the turn, waved his hand, as if beckoning to some one. "Hurry up!" he shouted; "here are two Britishers. Three of you go round to the right, three to the left, and the rest follow me. Hurry up before they run away!" The Britishers hearing these words and fearing there might be a small army about to surround them, turned and fled. They even threw down their arms to facilitate their flight. What report they made when they reached their quarters is not known, but a detachment was sent out to capture the young man and his army. Their surprise and mortification may be imagined when, at the turn in the path, they could find but the tracks of a single individual.

Taking Care of the Child.

A child wept bitterly. "Lost," it wailed. The multitude paused and looked with pity upon that picture of distress.

"Lost." The multitude swept on its way. "Lost."

Meanwhile two men and six women, all bearing a strong family resemblance to the sorrowing child, tarried in another part of the tent and stared at the giraffe eating hay.

Yes, they had all come to take care of the little one, and for no other reason. —Detroit Tribune.

In Serbia.

The marriageable girls of Serbia, at the conclusion of their Christmas feasts, gather bones from the dishes, and when they can do so unobserved, slip out of doors, dedicate a bone to each maiden, and place the bones side by side. The most favored house-dog is called to select one of the bones. The maiden to whom this selected bone is dedicated is looked upon as the first to be wedded. The second and third bones chosen by the dog foretell the second and third brides to be led from the homestead.

If the Baby is Cutting Teeth,

Be sure and use that old and welltried remedy, Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

Special Tax Notice.

State of Wisconsin, county of Rock, ss. Jan. 16, 1895. To whom it may concern. I hereby give notice that I intend to make application to the circuit court for the county of Rock on the first day of the January term to be held in the court room in the city of Janesville on the 28th January 1895, at 10 o'clock a. m. of that day or as soon thereafter as the same can be heard for a judgment against the several lots, lands, pieces and parcels of lands described in a report there and then to be made and filed with the clerk of said court for the unpaid special taxes for paving East and West Milwaukee, streets levied by the common council of the city of Janesville in the year 1894, and all persons interested therein are requested to attend such term of said court and offer their defense, if any they may have, to such application.

JAS. A. FATHERS,
Treas. City of Janesville.

Before a Full Head of Steam

Is gathered by that tremendously destructive engine, malaria, put on the breaks with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which will check its progress and avert disaster. Chills and fever, bilious remittent, dumb ague and ague cake are promptly relieved and ultimately cured by this gentle specific, which is also a comprehensive family medicine, speedily useful in case of dyspepsia, biliousness, constipation, sick headache, nervousness, rheumatism and neuralgia. Against the hurtful effects of sudden changes of temperature, exposure in hot weather, close application to laborious mental pursuits, any other influences prejudicial to health, it is a most trustworthy safeguard. It fortifies the system against disease, promotes appetite and sleep, and hastens convalescence after debilitating and flesh wasting diseases.

Dangers in Target Practice.

Prince Edward of Saxe-Weimar, the late commander of the forces in Ireland, once told Father Healy that he found "blind shooting" prevailing to a deplorable extent among the Irish militia regiments, and that he intended to insist on a greater attention to target practice. "For goodness' sake don't do that, your royal highness!" exclaimed Father Healy; "if you make the militiamen good shots, there won't be a landlord left in the country."

FASHION IN MOURNING.

Crape Alone Distinguishes Deep Mourning From Ordinary Black Gowns.

All deep mourning dresses are in woolen goods, many of which are manufactured with a view to making them resemble the texture of crape as nearly as possible. The severity of outline that once characterized deep mourning dress is now replaced by a degree of elegance that would once have been considered inconsistent with the garb of grief. An idea of ultra smartness is conveyed by new mourning.

BLACK COSTUME.

even that worn by widows in the first twelvemonth of their widowhood, as their gowns are now made in the height of fashion. Thirty years ago a long black shawl was indispensable in the first days of deep mourning and is even now used during the first weeks of bereavement by those who cling to old customs, but among the more advanced in the century end ideas it is replaced by smartly cut capes or coats heavily trimmed with crape. In fact, so very fashionable and elegant is modern mourning that the lavish use of crape in its initial stages is an absolute necessity in order to distinguish it from an ordinary black costume, such as may be seen by the score in an hour's turn on any fashionable thoroughfare.

The headgear remains distinctive, but far less so than it used to be when bonnets were crowded over with loops and quillings of crape and sprays of flowers made of the same material, with bunches of black grades made of blown glass. White batiste collars and cuffs are permitted now to widows in the first stage of mourning, and even the ordinary stiff linen ones are sometimes seen, while after six months modern taste allows the emphatic symbols to entirely disappear, only demanding that black shall continue to be worn for another six months.

A sketch is given of a black costume of bengaline. The skirt is trimmed on each side by a panel of black passementerie framed by a cluster of narrow plaits. The plain corsage fastens under a plastron of passementerie, and epaulets of passementerie surmount the gigot sleeves. A smooth basque of the same trimming covers the hips.

A NEW DEPARTURE.

Why Not Let the Men Be Wallflowers?—A Chic Gown.

A new social idea has been advanced, and as it is a rational one it is to be hoped that it will be encouraged. This novel proposition is that girls should be encouraged to dance together at balls. The dancing season is with us, and there is the customary proportion of girls who go to dances and never have a partner. If only, it is suggested, a few among the more popular of young married ladies would inaugurate a set of "lancers" for ladies only, and occasionally have a waltz with their girl friends, the idea would take. This is a plan for women to consider seriously. There are never men enough to "go round" at a ball, and it is therefore a mathematical certainty that during each dance a number of young women must be mere onlookers. Not only is this an unsatisfactory sort of amusement for girls who have looked forward to an evening of pleasure and activity, but it has imbued the young dancing man, who usually wears his brains in his patent leather shoes, with the feeling that he confers an immense honor on a young woman by inviting her to waltz. Being comparatively scarce, he puts a high value on himself. It seems like a reversal of the proper roles when the man rather than the woman confers the favor of a dance. If girls danced together, the matter would soon present a different aspect. There is no sort of reason why they should not thus display their grace and their pretty gowns, instead of sitting drearily along the wall watching other girls dance who are quite likely not as skillful in the accomplishment as themselves. Pink cheeks, bright eyes and the poetry of motion, even with another young woman for a partner, are better than being a wallflower.

An illustration is given of a striking gown for dress occasions. The ample black velvet skirt opens on each side of the front to show a quille of red moire framed by lengthwise bands of sable, on which fur heads appear at regular intervals. Gold buttons adorn the upper part of the black velvet bodice. The black velvet bodice is trimmed with bands of fur and beads and has a vandyke collar. The gigot sleeves are of red moire and the wide belt of black velvet.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

Plenty of Chance at Home.

"What do you hear from Hiram?" said Mrs. Sunup. "How's he doin' at college?"

"I ain't heard nothin' direct," was the reply, "but it come ter me in a round-about sort o' way that he is sowin' a good deal o' wild oats."

"What air ye goin' ter do?" "Hev 'im come home. I wrote 'im to-day that if he was so dead sot on agriculture he might ez well stick to the farm."—Detroit Free Press.

Premature.

He sank upon his knees. "Darling!" he impetuously cried, "I have come to sue for your hand."

She smiled kindly. "It cannot be," she said. "Think no more of such a thing."

Leading him gently to a seat, she explained at length that, in the essential nature of American jurisprudence, the courts could not interfere thus early in the game.—Puck.

Another Kind of Goose.

Johnny—What did you have for dinner at your house?

Tommy—Had a goose.

Johnny—Was it nice eating?

Tommy—It wasn't the kind of goose that you eat. It was that young Snipsey that keeps running to our house thinking sister Nan is in love with him, when she ain't.—N. Y. Recorder.

Found Out.

She—You're just like all the rest of the men. Here we've been married only a year, and you never kiss me unless I ask you to.

He—Huh! You're just like all the rest of the women. You never think to ask me to kiss you unless you want money.—N. Y. Weekly.

Noble Resignation.

Fiancee—Dearest, don't you think you could love mother enough to have her come and live with us?

Reggy (heroically)—More, darling, more!

Fiancee—How much more?

Reggy—Enough more to have us go and live on her.—N. Y. World.

Freaks.

Museum Attendant—This couple you see here were engaged the whole of a summer season at the seaside.

Museum Attendant—They are married.—Brooklyn Life.

Turn About.

"Good doggy!" said the boy in persuasive accents, as he fastened an empty meat-can to the animal's tail.

"I've got a tin for you."

"And I've got it in for you!" barked the dog, turning round and biting him.—Chicago Tribune.

Comparing Notes.

"What was your answer when young Higbie asked you to marry him?"

"Why do you want to know?"

"Because he asked me last night, and I want to let him down with something different."—Judge.

A WOMAN'S POWER.

IT IS THE GREATEST ON EARTH.

It Establishes Thrones and Destroys Nations.

[SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.]

The influence of women upon the civilization of the world could never be measured.

The flash of her eye, the touch of her hand, and we have the marvelous power of women, glorious in the possession of perfect physical health.

Lydia E. Pinkham, by her wonderful discovery of the Vegetable Compound has done much to place this great health power in the hands of women. She has lifted them out of the misery brought by displacement of the womb, and all the evils that follow diseased uterus.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound restores natural cheerfulness, destroys despondency, cures leucorrhoea, backache, strengthens the muscles, restores the womb to its normal condition, regulates menstruation, removes inflammation, ulceration, and tumors of the womb, etc.

Here are two women who speak from experience, and for the benefit of others. Miss Helen Smith, 43 22d Place, Chicago, Ill., says:—

"I was troubled with irregularity and leucorrhoea. I followed Mrs. Pinkham's advice, took her Vegetable Compound, and used her Sanative Wash. I now feel like a new woman, and am perfectly healthy."

Mrs. E. Fox, Woodstown, N. J., writes:—

"I had been sick 10 years with womb trouble and leucorrhoea. Doctors could not help me. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did.

Employment of any kind does not trouble me now, and I can stand nearly all day and not feel tired. I cannot thank you enough. I recommend the Compound to every woman who has any weakness."

TRUE CONSOLATION.

"Yes, miss, he's been took at last. Was he prepared, did you say, miss? If he wasn't it was his own fault. I did my dooty by him. Didn't I read the burial-service to him every day for the last six months?"—Lika Joko.

Infantile Heroics.

"Ah, groo! Ah, gah! Bgib glib bah, hah!" said the baby.

"By Jove, isn't that wonderful!" exclaimed the delighted father. "If he hasn't got our old college yell of '91, I'm a ghost!"—Cincinnati Tribune.

Her System of Chronology.

Minnie—How ridiculous! Mrs. Ferris never really began to live until she met her husband.

Ada—Humph! I suppose that's how she makes out she's only twenty-two.—Puck.

CURES OTHERS

MRS. HARRY TAPPAN, of Reynolds, Neb., writes: "For about two years I was a constant sufferer from diseases peculiar to my sex. I had to be carried from my bed, had horrible dreams, sinking sensations, was very nervous and had little or no appetite. In short, my whole body was racked with pain. I had frequent attacks of hysteria, and was completely discouraged for I found no medicine did me any good. At last I determined to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I had taken but two bottles before I felt so much better! I took eleven bottles. Today, I am well. I have never felt the least trace of my old complaint in the last six years. We use the Golden Medical Discovery whenever we need a blood-purifier. With its use, eruptions of all kinds vanish and the skin is rendered clear and soft, almost as an infant's." Sold everywhere.

New Tariff Prices

The brakes are off, turn on the steam. The silver and the tariff brakes are loosened, let the wheels of merchant tailoring turn with their old time velocity. We are putting our shoulders to the wheel in a manner that will enable the up to date wearer of tailor made clothing to open his eyes at the prices we are making. We want to give you some figures on English Suitings

In Worsteds, Cassimeres, Cheviots

to be made in very best style. A Fit Guaranteed or no Sale. We especially call your attention to the suits we are making to your order for $16 and pants $4. You cannot get the same suit at any merchant tailoring establishment in the city for less than $28, nor the pants less than $7.

All the new 1895 samples of woolens in medium and summer weight are here; come and see samples. Leave your order to be delivered anytime within the next 60 days or by April 1.

We represent the largest tailoring establishment in the world.

LLOYD & SON

MUST SELL. IS THE MAKER OF PRICE TO YOU.

The manufacturers story, money, money wanted. We looked over our stock, found they were up to the mark and then marked away down. We make prices even better than one for two. The most sanguine customer will be delightfully disappointed with the prices of shoes. 100 per cent is the least saving on some of them.

$1,000 Worth of the Richardson & Norcross make 25 Per Cent Less than Factory Cost.

Come make you selection, ask what they cost us then deduct per cent and they are yours.
